

Major UK Bridges, Tolled, Un-tolled and formerly Tolled

Note: Cloddach bridge included as a recent example of central expenditure where there is limited demand or benefit

Description	Length x width	Build cost	Tolls?	Toll rate (CARS)	Toll Discount
Tamar Bridge	642m x 15.2m	£1.5 million (1962)	YES. Stakeholders currently applying to be allowed to increase them annually in accordance with the RPI	£2.60	50% Discount for TAG Holders
	642m x 27.2m post widening	£34 million - Widening
		£4.5 million Toll Plaza and canopy
		£6 million - resurfacing
Cleddau Bridge	820m long	£11.83 million (1975)	Abolished March 2019	N/A	N/A
Severn Bridge	1600m x 22m	£8 Million (1966)	Abolished December 2018	N/A	N/A
Prince of Wales Bridge (2nd Severn Crossing)	5128m x 34.6m	£330 million (1996)	Abolished December 2018	N/A	N/A
Forth Road Bridge	2512m x 33m	£15.1 million (1964)	Abolished February 2008	N/A	N/A
Queensferry Crossing (2nd Forth Road Bridge)	2736m x 39.8m	£1.35 billion	No. Tolls in Scotland abolished prior to opening	N/A	N/A
Erskine Bridge (River Clyde)	1322m x 31.25m	£10.5 million (1971)	Abolished March 2006	N/A	N/A
Tay Road Bridge (Firth of Tay)	2250m x 29.8m	£6 million (1966)	Abolished February 2008	N/A	N/A
Skye Bridge	570m x width TBC.	£25 million (1995)	Abolished December 2004	N/A	N/A
Cloddach Bridge	Single track with weight restriction	Built 1905, cost unknown.	No. Used by 800 vehicles per day in 2020 and closed in 2022. Awarded £1.5 million for repairs in Spring 2023 Budget despite economic benefit of just £74k annually.	N/A	N/A
Dartford Crossing consists of two bored tunnels and the cable-stayed Queen Elizabeth II Bridge. Figures quoted are for the Bridge only.	2872m long	£120 million (1991) including approach road viaducts	Yes (each way). Free between 10pm and 6am	£2.50 (£2.00 for account holders)	Residents of Dartford and Thurrock pay £20 per year for unlimited crossings
Humber Bridge	2220m x 28.5m wide	£151 million (inc interest). £150 million of debt settled by government in 2010	Yes (each way)	£1.50	10% discount for TAG holders
Mersey crossing (Mersey Gateway Bridge)	2200m x 30m	£600 million	Yes (each way)	£2.00 (reduced to £1.80 if registered)	Eligible Halton Residents can register for a Discount Scheme & pay a £10 annual fee for unlimited crossings
Mersey crossing (Silver Jubilee Bridge)	482m x 16m	£2.433 million (1961)	Tolls introduced in 2021, despite not having been tolled previously, to recoup constructions costs of the Mersey Gateway Bridge		